

2008 Festival

FESTIVAL DATES 3rd-6th January 2008

Hokitika on the South Island of New Zealand hosts this annual event celebrating water in all of its forms.

During the festival, the films screen in two unique and special venues:

The Regent Theatre is a fantastic original art deco theatre on the verge of restoration. It seats 400 and shows no tendencies towards the modern multiplexes we often have to frequent.

The Crooked Mile is a small modern theatre complete with leather sofas for those who like to watch their movies in luxurious comfort. This is limited to 40 seats so get ther early to avoid missing out.

A programme of the films will be available to download here at the start of December.

We would like to say a big thank you to The West Coast Development Trust and the Westland District Council for their support.
